24. [redacted] LIAISON Called Ken DeGraffenreid, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and verified that the only article he needed from the 19 July 1977 NID was the article on Panama. I told him I would deliver this to him this week.

21. [ ] LIAISON Received a call from Kenneth DeGraffenreid, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, who said, in connection with the Committee's investigation into leaks on Panama, he needs to review the 19 July 1977 NID. I said I would try to get and show it to him on the Hill but I would not be able to leave it with him.

38. (Internal Use Only - DFM) LIAISON Met with Duke Short, on the Senate Judiciary Committee staff, in connection with the letter Senator Strom Thurmond (R., S. Car.) had sent the Director on Panama. I had been told by John Napier, of Senator Thurmond's personal staff, that Short was handling this matter for the Senator. I explained the anticipated thrust of the letter which would be to provide what information we could directly to the Senator but referring the Senator to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence regarding some of the other requests. Short said they did not want to deal with the SSCI and wanted as much information as possible to be passed directly to the Senator. I explained that there would be some information, namely operations, which we would have to handle through the Committee.
